

The shape of the fish, such a strong image for the Catholic religion and symbol of Jesus Christ

The drop, the water. Symbol of purification and blessing, it is associated with the ritual of initiation in the Christian life (baptism)

The conventional tracing, scheme of the axial plant so characteristic of classic Christian churches. The curved shape like the head of the church that is your body